Wolt County Sentinel

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING At 1.50 Per Annum in Advance JOB WORK MEATLY AND PROMPTLY, EXECUTED At Lowest Living Rates.

Advertising Rates Furnised on APPLICATION. Address All Communications to

The SENTINEL, OREGON, MO

VOLUME XII

-t 77 harman rock - all 65 mars

THE OLDEST PAPER IN THE COUNTY

OREGON, MISSOURI, FRIDAY, MARCH 16, 1877.

NUMBER 38

The Poem.

DON'T TAKE IT TO HEART.

There's many a trouble Would burst like a bubble And into the waters of Lethe depart, Did we not rehearse it And tenderly nurse it,

And give it a permanent place in our heart. There's many a serrow Would vanish to-morrow, Were we only willing to furnish the wings; sadly intruding And quietly brooding, es out all sorts of terrible things. How welcome the seeming

Of looks that are bearning. "Whether one's wealthy or whether one's po Eyes bright as a berry, Cheeks red as a cherry. The groun and the curse and the he

Resolve to be merry, All warry to ferry Acraes the famed waters that bid as forget, And no longer fearful, But happy and cheerful We feel that life has much that's worth living for yet.

SWEET BY AND DY.

There's a land that in fairer than day, And by faith we can see it afar, For the Father waits over the way, To prepare us a dwelling place there.

In the sweet by and by We shall meet on that beautiful shore; In the sweet by and by. We shall meet on that beautiful shore. We shall sing on that beautiful shore

The melodious songs of the biest, And our spirits shall sorrow no more, Nor sigh for the blessings of rest. To our bountiful Father above We will offer the tribute of praise For the glerious gift of his love

And the blessings that hallow our days

The Storft.

AN INSUBORDINATE WIFE.

Mrs. Giles stood in the front yard, hanging up her Monday's wash; the last piece hed found its way upon the will take dinner with us."

Dinner was soon ready and as soon in her hand. alispatched, for ceremony was one of At length a new thought came to the unknown things in the Giles family. her mind. Carefully placing the bills Mr. Giles and the stranger retired to in her pocket, she went into the kitchthe sitting room to discuss the merits en and harriedly finished the morning's of a new reaper and mower, while Mrs. work and then, dressing herself, she she was reading, "Why," said her eld- home in harmony with refined taste, with satin. On the left side the same and to it. Siles remained and cleared away the walked down to the station, which was see was reading. "Way," said ner rid" nome in mature to make form of trimming terminates where the and made herself ready for the afternoon, she went into the sitting room. for the city, ten miles away.

but a quarter of a mile distant. She was worth fifteen cents for a student of human nature to note how suddenly forth its inspiration. Our hories, feet of this tring miles away.

man! I'm in favor, of all machinery team. shat will lighten work for man, Why, "Heigho, mother," said he, "I was it's run mostly by machinery."

"Profitable? certainly," replied he to to walk." an interrogation from the stranger "Money in the bank," he added, never omitting an occasion of mentioning a to the city." small deposit he had in the city, bank. "The city! Gee whitaker!" and Leon-The stranger was gone at last, and ard gave a prolonged whistle.

son, a lad of fitteen. Slowly and wea- my purchases." after stitch was taken, but to little "And so the old man did shell out for The lat purpose; it did seem as if she would once in his life and give you a little never come to the last. But if stitches money, did be?"

I have to plod along with hardly suffi ent to need a great many things if I determination to assert her rights, was entering her mind. She had so long given up her ordering her minds and state only or mand to the minds of long and state of sik and ruchings of crept, liste and to the real country long or minds of long and state of sik and ruchings of crept, liste and the minds in his scauty, locks, and demi-her work in the minds of long or minds in his scauty, locks, and there were sik and ruchings of crept, liste and the minds of long and lock of sik and ruchings of crept, liste and long state her favorites, is unfair to the schools, a bound of long or minds of long and lock of listed with ruching of a mind of long and lock of listed with ruching of a mind of long and lock of listed with ruching of long or minds of long and lock of long and lock of long and lock through the meshes of habit which his Being very much fatigued by the day's stern wal had woven around her. excitement, she soon slept heavily. to prepare the evening meal.

have no use for them."

what use you have for a machine. or two, he said :nowadays, are getting mighty indi- tell." gossip about their neighbors," "Why, Philip-"

"Women's work is nothing," con- sleeping room. inued Mr. Giles, not heeding the insewing machine as I want when he What's the matter?" made women."

With this ultimatum he left the ta- assumed an air of dignity. realer he contemplated buying.

her thoughts wandered back to the mistaken." days when, in the freshness of her the warning of her friends.

he warring of her friends.

lighten your work. Now I have relighten your many shadows had darkened their improvements there are to facilitate and supremacy by the influence of a will be seen that Mrs. Hayes has chose gold dust have been sent out of the already supplied with the latter class. pathway; darker yet seemed to grow woman's work I intend to have. Nay, womanly and loving heart; by dealing en styles and material highly approprilife's rugged journey. She saw her do not interrupt me," she continued as with all the members of the family ate for dresses that may have historic six sons growing up around her Mr. Giles made an effort to speak. with a heart full and face glowing, interest. amidst rough and evil influences "Those things are paid for with the with love and cheerfulness. without the ability to counteract them. money dear old grandfather left me by Mrs. Giles remained a long time his will. You loaned it to Mr. Harris, bowed over that breakfast table, pray- doing me neither the honor nor justice should possess at all times, inspiring charming simplicity. It is composed ing with a sense of helplessness and a to have the notes drawn in my name. all about her with a spirit of rich in- of black silk, welvet and pale blue satteeling of need, such as she had never Yesterday he paid it. I went to the dwelling happiness. This is one of the ln; the latter material, however, enbefore experienced. A loud rap at the city and made these purchases; they graces that cost nothing but self discispeaking to herself, a habit which she door startled her. On opening it she frequently indulged. "Now if dinner tound Mr. Harris had called to pay off a bought. The rest of the money I was out of the way, I might have time note which had long been due; a note placed in the savings bank." to finish Leonard's suit this afternoon; Mr. Giles had often declared he should I've had it around so long. If I only never be able to collect. "The peor Giles. machine, now inneh i wretch," he insisted "will never be could accomplish" and picking up able to pay his honest delas, while his Giles, "that I may have the use of it the associates but the surroundings, which trims the front breadths of the her basket, she went into the house. Wife spends all his estudies on such when I wish. This farm was pur-The prospect within was not very toolish things as washing machines. chased with a part of the legacy, and dren, and they partake in manners and blue satin, and finished on the edge

Just as she began to lay the table, Mr. would attend to the business. When rightly adjusted." Giles appeared at the door, and said: all was satisfactorily settled and Mr. "Pot on an extra plate; that man Harris had gone, Mrs. Giles set for some time looking at the roll of money

It was nearly four o'clock in the af-"It you have anything new and bet- ternoon when she rejurned home. Mr. der, snything that will make work Giles was still absent; Leonard, the easier and do more of it, I'm your oldest son, stood in the yard with the bless you, just look around my farm; just going to look for you. I thought

"Well, my son," she replied, "you would not have found me, I have been

Mrs. Glies sat down with weary limbs "Yes," said Mrs. Giles, getting into pressed slowly, her thoughts flew Mrs. Giles reproved Leonard for Every year Giles has added something order: 'Please let the bearer have what untrained teacher, at any price. Sennew to his farming implements, while she needs.' I would make it conveniturned from side to side, but no more small bonse near his farm. He sup-The next morning at breakfast she sleep for him, He concluded to get up. piles her with fresh milk from his remarked to her husband that an agent Having dressed himself, he took the dairy and makes her pay for it. She cheerless. Toll and imitastry will aged ten, the only daughter, on the for a sewing machine had called the candle and proceeded to the kitchen. does not require much, milk-only make a covering for them from old coats inmigural occasion, dressed in a white of his machines.

"I told him," the said, "he might feave one when he came next week."

"I told him," the said, "he might feave one when he came next week."

"I told him," the said, "he might fork and saveraged of long and earnestly the fork and saverage of the missing the light above his fork and saverage of the number which she saids of fittle oreaments to walls, and saverage of the number which she saids of fittle oreaments to walls, and saverage of the number which she saids of fittle oreaments to walls, and saverage of the number which she saids of fittle oreaments to walls, and saverage of the number which she saids of fittle oreaments to walls, and saverage of the number which she saids of fittle oreaments to walls, and saverage of the number which she saids of fittle oreaments to walls, and saverage of the number which she saids of fittle oreaments to walls, and saverage of the number which she saids of fittle oreaments to walls, and saverage of the number which she saids of fittle oreaments to walls, and saverage of the number which she saids of fittle oreaments to walls, and saverage of the number which she saids of fittle oreaments to walls, and saverage of the number which she saids of fittle oreaments to walls, and saverage of the number which she saids of fittle oreaments to walls, and saverage of the number which she saids of fittle oreaments to walls, and saverage of the number which she saids of fittle oreaments.

The saverage of the animals in the same sheds and carry and stables, it effected a grick and stables, it effected a grick and carry and stables, it effected a gr of his newfangled humbugs here; I ed on the shelf behind it. Turning around, his eye fell upon a washingmachine with wringer attached; taking "You!" interrupted he; "don't see hold of the crank and giving it a turn

You could never learn to use it; or if "A washing machine, by thunder! you did, what have you to sew? Only But how in the name of common sense my clothes and the boys'. Women, they wash upon it is more than I can pendent, wanting machines to do their | Placing the candle on the table, he work; too lazy to do it themselves. came in contact with a patent churn. Suppose they want to gad about and "What! another blasted concern! Polly! Polly!" he screamed, seizing the candle and hurrying back into the

In his haste his foot caught in the terruption. "My mother had not as trame-work of a sewing machine and many conveniencies for doing her he fell full length in the middle of the work as you have, yet she always had floor, while the candle found a resting her meals regular and well cooked, and place on the opposite side of the room. that is more than I can say of you. Mrs. Giles, suddenly aroused from a No, I don't want any sewing machine sound sleep, started up in a bewilderabout my house. God made as good a ed way, saying: "What is it, Phillp?

Mrs. Giles sprang from the bed and ble, and, taking his hat, mounted his "Matter enough!" growled he, and horse and rode away to see the new picking himself up and rescuing the candle from its close proximity to the One by one the members of the family bed clothes; "who has been filling up ly finished their breakfast and passed the house with all that trumpery and out, leaving Mrs. Giles alone. She sat who do you think is going to pay for it? with her head resting upon her hand; If you think I am, yon're very much

"Philip Giles." said she, "I have alyouth, she gave her heart's deepest and ways faithfully endeavored to do my added to the comforts of the home, and best affections to Philip Giles. Blind- duty as a wife and mother. I have pa- the house by study, taste, economy and ed by her great love for him she saw tiently borne my privations, thinking industry, making life pleasanter and count of Mrs. Hayes' dress, which is not the extreme selfishness and coarse- them necessary to husband our ness of his nature. She implicitly believed all his promises and heeded not without stint to purchase machinery to that have already been purchased, that prospect for mines, some to take up the district was organized, a Frenchwill be sont as soon as the weather set.

"In your name, I suppose" said Mr.

And so she did .- Rural New Yorker

Excess of Knowledge.

he checked himself, and what a veriety though small and humble, can be made and stylish. Another novel and pretty of conflicting emotions played over his by the deft hand of woman, sweet, feature is the moderal fastening at the

Don't undertake to get over the fact, and aching shoulders to finish a suit of the wagon, "and now I wish you to go or to get round it, that it costs someclothes she was making for her oldest the station with me and bring home thing to pay teachers and to defray other expenses of sustaining your

> The law provides a way to secure the money necessary to do this so let it be done according to law.

The investment is a good one. If a I denough. The last words of her speaking thus of his father, but he competent, skillful teacher is employed ausband lingered in her mind, and tinued: "Well, I can't help it. I think the people will get the worth of their again and again they recurred to her, it a mean shame. He never gives you money many times over. A large "Yes, men can have their bardens a cent to spend, but sends you to the number of school officers will not emlightened, but poor women may drudge, store at the corner with the same old ploy an inexperienced, incompetent. ploy an inexperienced, incompetent,

The afternoon wore away and Mrs. After the first map Mr. Giles was In Lodi, Ohio, He is a well-to-do tarmer, and his mother lives alone in a to the sun of human happiness. Mr. Gites laid down his knife and fork and sat with atter amazement depicted on his countenance. "A sewing machine!" he gasped, when he recovered himself. "He needn't leave any and shiring tinware was neatly arranged.

Mr. Gites laid down his knife and first a quart measure contains and thou said with as lattle wages, computed in said. The only galch or creek claims work with the palm of the number which sha saids of fittle or name and thou silk stocking were worn with the palm of the number which sha saids of fittle or name and thou silk stocking were worn with the palm of the hand, and applied at interval of the hand, and applied

Ladies' Bortiolio. "OUR OWN."

If I had known in the morning, How wearily all the days Would trouble my mind I said when you went away, I had been more careful, darling, Nor given you needless pain; But we vex "our own" With look and Mond, 1 ... 1100 We might never take back again.

For though in the quiet evening You may give me the kiss of peace, Yet it might be That never for me The pain of the heart should cenee. How many go forth in the morning, That never come tack as night ! And hearts have broken

We have carrful thoughts for the stranger And smiles for the sometime guest; But off for "'our own'" The bitter tone, Though we love "our own" the best. Ah! lips with the curve impatients Ab ! brow with that look of scorn; Twere a cruel fate,

That sorrow dua he'er sel right.

Were the night too tate To undo the work of meen. HOME COMFORT.

Read before Melrose Inwa Geonge Dec. 29, 1876, by Mrs. C. F. Clark-son, and published by Resolution of the Grange.

I am asked how many things can be happier with little additional cost? The first great object to be attained which city-the-outfit was obtained; lighten your work. Now I have re- by scolding, fault-finding, sourcess the election to enable her to prepare will be sent as soon as the weather set-for the position appointed her in lite.

2d. The old and the young have a underdress of velvet, which is cut in 2d. The old and the young have a underdress of velvet, which is cut in that he now has on the road, will not preparation still goes on, and not much claims were thus disposed of ere the cheering; the washtub to clear away Mrs. Gles informed Mr. Harris of hereafter I littend to see that my rights, recently to place into the legacy, and the dinner to place informed Mr. Harris of hereafter I littend to see that my rights, recently to place into the legacy, and the dinner to place informed Mr. Harris of hereafter I littend to see that my rights, recently the legacy and the dinner to place informed Mr. Harris of hereafter I littend to see that my rights, recently the legacy and the dinner to place informed Mr. Harris of hereafter I littend to see that my rights, recently the legacy and the dinner to place informed Mr. Harris of hereafter I littend to see that my rights, recently the legacy and the dinner to place in the legacy and th and the dinner to place upon the table her husband's absence, but said she are respected and my legal claims, stantly come in contact. If associates portion of the skirt which would naturwe may expect the crop from the back and fined with sath, and the the hills, the Captain says it is past tion of Deadwood, without counting are rough, illiterate and immoral, so ally be hidden by the velvet is turned harmony, grace or beauty about our mere description cannot convey an ingricher every day, and the number at 6,000, most of whom have mining or gmazement. An excess of knowledge comfort, can and should be produced collar is of the same material, lined is oftentimes a burden. What does a by home industry and ingenuity. By of crepe lisse and Valenciennes lace. khow is their best triend, the boys will be careful of the house and particular to erns of propriety if the tather wades into the house with recking boots, spits terprises, without which true happiness comes to no house or home. In ness comes to no house or home. In fact, the man who opposes or thwarts a woman in any way in her effects to make the home pleasant and agreeable the bottom of the florance had been cut where each plant was designed to come the bottom of the florance had been cut where each plant was designed to come the bottom of the florance had been cut where the home pleasant and agreeable the bottom of the florance had been cut where the home pleasant and agreeable the bottom of the florance had been cut where the home pleasant and agreeable the bottom of the florance had been cut where the home pleasant and agreeable the bottom of the florance had been cut where the home pleasant and agreeable the bottom of the florance had been cut where the home pleasant and agreeable the bottom of the florance had been cut where the home pleasant and agree able to come the bottom of the florance had been cut where the home pleasant and agree able to come the bottom of the florance had been cut where the home pleasant and agree able to come the bottom of the florance had been cut where the home pleasant and agree able to come the bottom of the florance had been cut where the home pleasant and agree able to come the bottom of the florance had been cut where the home pleasant and agree able to come the bottom of the florance had been cut where the home pleasant and agree able to come the home pl

ter, for the rest or repose of one of the square-cut neck a cluster of flowers, family when weary or unwell, is an arlike those on the skirt. A chemisette til'a sort of second-hand store, and streak and so they abandoned it, going streak and so they abandoned it, going the constitution of like those on the skirt. A chemisette til'a sort of second-hand store, and streak and so they abandoned it, going streak and so they abandoned it, going the constitution of like those on the skirt. A chemisette til'a sort of second-hand store, and streak and so they abandoned it, going the constitution of like those on the skirt. A chemisette til'a sort of second-hand store, and streak and so they abandoned it, going the constitution of like those on the skirt. A chemisette til'a sort of second-hand store, and streak and so they abandoned it, going the constitution of the skirt. A chemisette til'a sort of second-hand store, and streak and so they abandoned it, going the constitution of the skirt. A chemisette til'a sort of second-hand store, and streak and so they abandoned it, going the constitution of the skirt. A chemisette til'a sort of second-hand store, and the stream where they the remarkable occurrence the stream where they in the stream where th

Like the nest of the bee or bird, the bouse of woman should be made a paradise by her hard works.

It is necessary to instill into the heads and hearts of girls and boys, the importance of education, and of stor.

Waluable Information for Those who Expect to Go There this Spring. and art. For this, purpose they must be supplied with the means of attain- The Mines, the Sail, Climate, Wa taining this information. This can only be done cheaply in rural districts. by wisely organized action, so that the burden will be light and triffing on every one, in view of the great amount of lows five years ago last winter, and of good. But there must also be hours is a gentleman widely known in this ot freedom and amusement, and in matter the older, and even the heads of the family should take a part. No with downcast looks, us too much attachment to the world to enjoy an hour of pure or social enjoyment. This is has yet been given to the public. The considerable in spots between that quality of gold found hereabouts is not entirely a world of graves, of shadows, or of mourning, but one of sunshine in the heart, and where the most of this is, there is joy and comfort in the house and home. Life's burdens and trials will flee before such benign influence, and the home will be blest and happy.

MRS. PRESIDENT HAVES. The Inaugural Reception Dress of the Lady of the White House.

The lady readers of the SENTINEL will be interested in the tollowing ac-

THE INAUGURAL RECEPTION DRESS There is a hallowed and sanctified was one of rare description, in which look which every wife and mother extreme elegance is combined with ation. Not only falls over a ten-inch knife pla the wrists with ruchings of the same. The back of the dress descends in a destroys furniture and the walls of the house by awkward positions of the silk was trimined with a knife pleating, tance that they have to be hauled, ginning at the Foot Hills on the east chair or teet. The heads of the family should go hand in hand in all good enbox plait caught down at the top. The ness in the Hills the Captain brands Thu discovery of gold was first made for the protection of each rest

Mending.

THE BLACK HILLS.

Capt. C. V. Gardner left the Hill three weeks ago. The Captain was State, and on his statement rehance tor of the Black Hills Pioncer, arrived can be placed. Of strict integrity, he from Deadwood last evening, and will would not mislead any one in regard remain in Deaver some tour or five oue should become slave to drudgery; would not mislead any one in regard remain in Denver some four or five ently effective. Efforts are negligible to the condition of affairs, and his account of the Hills can be relied upon day last, the weather was pleasant, and as perhaps nearer correct than any that there was no snow on the ground, but Captain has been in the Hills over a point and Custer, a distance of sixty year, has been quite successful, having miles. Between Custer and Cheyenne, already made a very handsome sum, the amount of snow was limited, and py to hear of his good fortune.

THE BILLS. The Captain informs us that the mining region that is now being prospect. The line is well stocked with six-horse with dust, is stood all dies to the ed covers a territory eighty miles north coaches, and there are comfortable ent-At Deadwood and in the vicinity there The accommodations for sleeping are validity of the titles to their claims, and are from 10,000 to 12,000 people, a very not so good, but will soon be improved, oxciting times are satisfiated. Aclarge majority of whom are men. Not less than Quartz mining is now going on very extensively, and twelve mills have and from 500 to 600 people were met given in the Cincinnati Gazette, in been put in since last September, and on the road, going into the Hills, some four more will be sent from Chicago to engage in business, some to mine or out this season. It is thought that way for about four weeks, and excelthere will be at least 50,000 men in the lient success was the general report, Hills by fall. The demand for labor The weekly product of the districts inwill be large, as by that time fully sev- eluding lode mines, is not less than enty-five quartz mills will be in opera- $10,000, the greater part of which tion; several saw mills and teamsters comes from the placers. During the mill is now turning out quartz that on the placers, so that many of them will average $10 to the ton just as it are now in 1 200 I as I add comes. Some tons yield $2,000. He thinks that his mine, "the Hidden house, farm or lawn, the child not used idea of this portion of the dress; like of mines is largely increasing. The business interests in immediate vicini> foot hills and in the valleys is as fine be generally resumed. as eyes ever saw. For grazing purposes they cannot be surpassed. The three feet deep in the hills.

but liftle If any suffering in the bills ting to the close of last week.

to all her bousehold, deserves note in a crescent shape, and this curved or East. They have regularly organ; possession of the district until Decemgood wife nor noble cons and lovely edge filled in with tringe. It formed their government, with a Mayor, her, when a party was formed, and the daughters. Squetimes a woman be a simple not beautiful frimming. The Police Judge, City Marshal and Police, coveted territory again invaded, this be glad to hear that a invariant growth I have to plod along with hardly sofficient uteralist to cook a decent dimer;
an old stove without a boiler or a whole gridde and a cracked door. No wonder I can't have a lost of the base in the Normal School system t time in the mines as prospering. Dr. thirteen, have a little dry gulch a quar- bands in his scarty, locks, and after > ticle of great domestic comfort in a side the dress. An estrict tip, just family, costing but little, adding much tinged with the hie of the peach bloom to the sun of human happiness.

>
> Men are now on the road to the Hills located a smaller dry gulch, and have that has been very successful. One of the wondertal success. His experience in large numbers, and more capitalsts here very successful. One of the wondertal success. An estrict had not have that has been very successful. One of the wondertal success. An estrict had not have that has been very successful. One of the wondertal success. An estrict had not have that had not had not have that had not have that had not have that had not had not have that had not have that had not have that had not had tain, from experience, advises men a very high hill, directly in the rear of horses affected as above stated, and, with means to go to the Hills, but men our tent, from which he is taking very while it stayed the spread of the diswithout money to think twice before rich dirt, packing it in sacks and carry- case among animals in the same sheds is the best. There is a daily stage between that point and Deadwood, the cents to the pan, which is considered fair being $50. One can purchase unusually good. With these exceptickets from Omaha to Deadwood for tions, all claims are idle, and the value with a train, walking about half of the there are various opinions. Mining time, but having your baggage barded, will be prosecuted under great disad-This will cost about $15 or $20.

over the country, and says the water is average depth of eighteen feet, and is pure, air invigorating. We cannot see covered with immense boulders. The why a trip to the Hills next summer abundance of water is another serious would not be a fine one, as there is obstacle. It is met just below the surnow no danger from Indians.

[From the Denger Tribune] A. W. Merrick, editor and proprie- ciently clear for work. "At present and his many friends will be very hap- the roads were in fair condition. This both gold and silver bearing, have been embraces 230 miles, and took five days discovered in the district, and their by coach, as night trips have not been existence is urged as a strong proof made since the recent Indian troubles. that the creek must be well washed and south, and 100 miles east and west. ing houses at the different stations.

FOUR HUNDRED TEAMS

FINE CONDITION FOR PAY. Treasure," with the large stamp mill In the other districts, the work of $60, as the case might be. Many tine the company to which he belongs be- gold is taken out at present, as both occupants, only contains forty families. menced the branch out from Deadseed we are sowing. It there be no lower edge finished with a plaiting. A comprehension. The mines are provided those now on the road, may be stated to the lovely and the beautiful, will and yet unlike a recer, it is eaught up quartz is rich, and the farther the ty. The ifforting population—that what is a "cold deck and a cold the light of tail flush'?" a young lady, the light of a South-Hill bome, asked the other We must therefore study to have all below the walst, and confined by handevening, looking up from a newspaper the surroundings of our house and some loops and ends of velvet limit tity. In fact there appears to be no for parties merely seeking work to remain out of the Hills until the middle among themselves how in the thunder Capt. Gardaer says that the land in of April, when mining operations can Spear Fish Valley is remarkable in this in Beadwood at from $5 to $10 per waist. The silk, instead of being bid-respect. The grass is most nutritious week, the first figure representing did the next best thing-called a mitended not to perceive the sharp glance of suspicious inquiry which his, father of Kiddermiaster carpets to give our ontside, where it is out into three well and the cattle thrive wonderfully well. what it costs to what it costs to board at the average of suspicious inquiry which his, father nor Kiddermiaster carpets to give our ontside, where it is out into three well of suspicious inquiry which his, father nor Kidderminster carpets to give our defined scallops on either side, which while and have anbaisted on the grass entired age hotel. Consider the state of the search his and have anbaisted on the grass entired age hotel. Consider the state of the search have a larger than the local about Dendwood. shot at him over his speciacles, while the ellence was so protound and awful that the other members of the spirit of contentment. But things must be in their appropriate looked up and gazed around in dumb looked up and gazed a comain longer than two days. containing ten light stamps, has been for should the boys get a grip upon him he would be summarily dealt with. mild with the exception of three days and the owners are satisfied that they man want to make himself a walking loving example, and by implanting in them a desire to please the one they the welsts with ruchlugs of the same. The show was about by ment them a desire to please the one they the welsts with ruchlugs of the same. "rusty," Indians are troublesome, but There has been a number of ranch- the troops and citizen scouts may soon this winter campaign. Thus exposite or pened in the country within twenty succeed in driving them out from the of the busile bands under Sitting B. be careful of the house and particular to deep train, without the sign of drapery beep it in order as the lady. But it must be expected the boys will be pat-man is making money hand over fist & Brown, but they couldn't find the pay ever possessed before. Struck by this

Holt County Sentinel

OREGON, HOLT COUNTY, MO. PUBLISHED EVERY FEIDAY MORNING.

At 1.50 Per Annum fu Advance ADDRESS (ALL COMMUNICATIONS TO

The SENTINEL. OREGON, HO. OREGON, HOLT COUNTY, MO.

Streighter is below, and averages 10 about $66. Another mode is to go of the creek is a subject upon which vantages, and at great expense of mon-This will cost about $15 or $20. vantages, and at great expense of mon-Capt. Gardner is very enthusiastic ey and labor, as "bed rock" runs at an face, and requires large phorps and constant labor to keep the sharts somthere are nothing but home-made pumps in use, and they are, not sufficiparatus, with which it is expected the quality of gold found hereabouts is coarser and cleaner-that is, more free from rust-than that taken from French The miners of Henry District lare considerably unitated concerning the cording to hiw, every ulan bas a right to locate 200 feet of find apon any guleh or stream for mining purposes; but he can hold by right of location only one claim in each district. When man named Gay was elected Recorder Hills, and parties well-posted state that When our informant left Deadwood pointed one W. H. Trablin his deputy. This man, formerly a petillogger of Kearney, Neb., at once assumed control of affairs. He staked off the creek into some 200 claims; death out a few to applie ats, a few more to personal friends, and the remainder he held for imself, recording fictitious names as claimants. Arrivals, increased, and applicants for claims were told that the ground was all located, but that such and such a claim, held by John Jones, Smith or Robinson, who had gone back to the States, could be bought for $25 or Hn had gone to the greenborns or "tender-feet," as new arivals from the their backs; up. They; first inquired he (Timblin) got possession of so much territory; and, next, "Where is Timblin?" A search resulted in the discovery that the Captain, as he was called, had stepped out As the boys confda't lay their hands upon him, they ners' meeting for the 15th list,, when a The Illilers are apprehensive of seannelations of Crook for abandoning his winter campaign, thus exposing of the hostile bands under Sitting Bul agency Indians on the south. I to the house with recking boots, spits to the bouse with recking boots, spits to the boots to th surmounted by a straight ruffle set The freight is from eight to ten cents and going west, named Rosebud, Last floward's solution of the Indian prob Chance, -Husleton, Foster, Harney, Jemis R is proposed to form an organ inches, when there was a full double The stories about murder and lawless- iron, Grizzly and Granite, respectively, ization in every mining camp, not only